Here is your school,

Mr. Morgan

In 1955, Mr. Charles Henry Morgan became the first principal of a newly-constructed high school in Eastern Mecklenburg County. In reality, it was no school at all; it was merely a building with several classrooms, a few desks, plain bulletin boards, some unbroken pieces of chalk, and many erasers all of which were clean. The building had no name, no traditions, no colors, no alma mater, no fight song, no nickname; in short, it had no personality.

However, all this was to change. For under the able and faithful leadership of Mr. Morgan, it gained life. From its very birth, Mr. Morgan has played an integral part in the shaping of the building into a school; a school now with a name, with traditions, with personality, with pride; a school which is unparalleled in its achievements in producing well-rounded, successful graduates, who have taken their part in our contemporary society as able and as aware citizens. A school of which Mr. Morgan is a part, even more so than it of him.

There is no need to enumerate all the accomplishments and activities--scholastic, cultural, athletic--of the school of which Mr. Morgan has been so much a part, for all these are shown in the following pages of this book. So, here is Park View, Mr. Morgan; here is your school.

Alma Mater Inspires Loyalty

Park View High School
we love dearly,
In our work and play,
And we'll strive to make her better,
More and more each day.

With our teachers and our rules,
And our principal, and school,
We will have a better
band,
To make our school more strongly stand.

Fight Song Boosts Spirit

Go, Dragons, win tonight,

Fight on to victory.

O Park View Team, there

Is no finer, Win or lose

We're all for thee.

Fight! Fight! Fight!

Go, Dragons, all the way.

Fight for the green and white.

Lift up your banner high

And win Park View,

So, fight on to victory.

A School With A Dedicated Faculty

Here, Mr. Morgan, is the group of men and women with whom you have worked--some, since the birth of the school--and have come to know so well, the faculty.

These thirty-two individuals have the responsibility of carrying out the main function of any school: that of teaching, advising, and guiding their pupils. However, the duties of the teachers are not limited to teaching alone, for they also sponsored clubs, attended student conventions, and aided in the special activities of the school.

In the faculty meetings, the instructors, along with you, Mr. Morgan, formulated school policy, resolved questions, and discussed the problems which seemed to come up at Park View, just as they do at all schools.

Although the accomplishments of these people are not easy to measure, their successes are surely indicated by the many achievements of Park View's students and graduates.

In the morning the office is crowded with students waiting for passes to be signed while teachers sign in.

Administrators Decide School Policies

The members of the Mecklenburg County School Board are: SEATED: Mr. R.P. Gordon, Mrs. Virginia Jeffreys, Mr. R.D. Cook, Mr. P.N. Winn; STANDING: Mr. E.A. Payne, Mr. W.L. Hunter, Mr. S.B. Land, Mr. W.E. Newman, Mr. H.C. Bobbitt, Mr. J.E. Smith, and Mr. A.B. Haga.

The key organization in the Mecklenburg County system is the School Board. Decisions and regulations made by the school board deal with the maintenance of public free schools in the county, curriculum opportunities, personnel, and budget. Meetings are held monthly in Boydton in order to discuss problems which occur during the course of the school year.

Mr. Charles H. Morgan, as principal of Park View, has many duties and responsibilities.

He received his B.A. degree from the University of Richmond. He holds the Virginia State Farmers Honorary degree conferred for "Interest and Leadership" in the field of agriculture, and a M.A. degree from Duke University.

Mr. Morgan also has time for participating in church and civic affairs.

Mr. Morgan writes a letter of recommendation for a prospective college student.

Mr. Bryant P. Lumpkin, assistant principal, is a man of many duties. He is in charge of signing all absentee excuses and passports. He is also head of transportation at Park View. He must see that all buses are in good running condition.

Mr. Lumpkin is Park View's government teacher. Our assistant principal is not only a busy man, but a friendly one. He always has time for each student.

Mr. Lumpkin, an avid coin fan, checks mint mark on Peyton Smith's coin.

M.E.A. Rewards Retiring Teachers

Mr. Morgan received a gift from the M.E.A. at the annual picnic in Clarksville. Mr. Payne, president, reads a tribute to Mr. Morgan.

Miss Hatch and other county teachers wait in line to be served at the picnic.

Mr. Payne presents a gift to Mrs. Annie McLean for her many years of service in the teaching profession.

Staffs Service School And Students

The cafeteria staff, managed by Mrs. Mae Mewborn, prepares lunch. The staff members include: Mrs. Nell Cobb, Mrs. Sam Rainey, Mrs. Louise Raines, and Mrs. Edith Nance.

The janitorial staff is composed of Mr. Hunter Fields, Mr. Sterling Tanner, custodian, and Mrs. Alto Fields.

Ring goes the bell. "Finally, it's lunch-time," shout the P.V. students as they rush to the cafeteria. The efficient staff has already prepared plates which enables them to be served in a minimum of time. Everyone agrees that the lunches are excellent and the staff superior.

Park View credits its clean and orderly appearance to its excellent janitorial staff. Hard work on the part of each member of the staff is essential to proper sanitary maintenance. We are grateful for the close co-operation of the staff and the student body.

Transportation is supplied Park View students by the familiar yellow school buses. The bus driver-veteran of fights, jokes, and noise-mans his vehicle each morning and afternoon in order to transport the eager, alert portion of the population called high school students. These cautious drivers play a vital role in the life of the Park View student body.

A School Where Individuality Is Stressed

Nearly six hundred individuals, each different and unique, comprise what is certainly the most important part of your school, Mr. Morgan, the student body.

Although the size of the student body has grown rapidly during the nine years you have been principal here, there has still been no loss of identity among the individual students. For here at Park View, the infinite importance of the student is not overlooked, and each student receives separate attention, whether it be for scholastic or personal purposes.

Thus, regardless of interests or personality, each student plays a major role in the composition of the school, and his loss would mean a serious alteration to the school as a whole.

While the personality of each student is different, so are his accomplishments and there have been many during the past year. Few schools can boast a better or more well-rounded student body than can we here at Park View, here at your school, Mr. Morgan.

The officers of the Class of 1964 are Janan Montgomery, reporter; Billy Taylor, treasurer; Dwight Phaup, president; Joe Tanner, vice-president; and Mike Hauenstein, secretary.

Senior Officers Plan For Final Year

The class of 1964 had a busy year. They realized that they were the leaders of Park View and that their final year was at last here. Dwight Phaup was elected president. He not only presided over numerous senior meetings but also had many other responsibilities, including plans for the class trip to the New York World's Fair, and the selection of the class gift.

The Senior Class had three money making projects this year. The first was a pancake sale for Hines Supermarket. The Miss Park View contest was co-sponsored by the class and the S.C.A., and members of the class presented a play entitled "Mother Is a Freshman".

As commencement drew near, the class elected Marvin Piland and Dwight Phaup to make speeches at graduation. Awards were presented to those students who were outstanding in various academic and athletic fields. These were Janice Roberts, girl's athletic award; Wade Crutchfield, boys' athletic award; Billy Taylor, math award; Betsy Walker, science; Betty Copley, French; Betsy Walker, Latin; Tommy Williams, agriculture; Betty Crutchfield, art; Linda Moore, band; Robert Elliott, music; Margie Haines, choral. Marvin Piland received a $300 scholarship presented by the M.E.A. and P.T.A.

The Junior Class chose their officers in September. These officers capably led their classmates through a very eventful year.

During the year the juniors increased their scholastic knowledge in order to prepare them for the final step in their high school career. Many college bound students took the National Merit Scholarship test as well as the College Board Examinations.

In February the long-awaited class rings arrived.

The highlight of the junior year was the presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom on May 15. As their theme the juniors chose "In Apple Blossom Time." The theme was carried out in colors of green and pink, and the "Kaydets" of Chase City, Virginia, supplied the music for the evening.

Delegates to boys and girls state were chosen by the class. Faye George, Sylvia Puryear, and Jean Pegram represented Park View at Girls' State. Delegates to Boys' State were Donald Bell, Lyle Lacy, A.C. Wells, Jr., Bunny Paulette, Johnny Hankley, Willie Cole, Malcolm Leonard, Billy Hite, and Jimmy Curtis.

The Sophomores began their third year at Park View by electing class officers. C. W. Gee was chosen to lead his class as president.

This year many sophomores participated in the varsity sports of football, basketball, and baseball. Three girls served as varsity cheerleaders.

Other tenth graders took a more active part in various clubs. They held offices, took part on programs, and attended conventions.

The sophomores had their annual party before the Christmas vacation. They decorated a tree for the cafeteria which was left for all the students to enjoy. With the help of their sponsors, and some of their parents, the evening was a very festive occasion.

Gordon Chosen President By Freshmen

The first official duty of the ninth grade class was to elect class officers for the year. Kitty Gordon was chosen to lead her class.

This year the courses became more difficult as decisions were made concerning the type of curricula to be studied - whether academic or vocational.

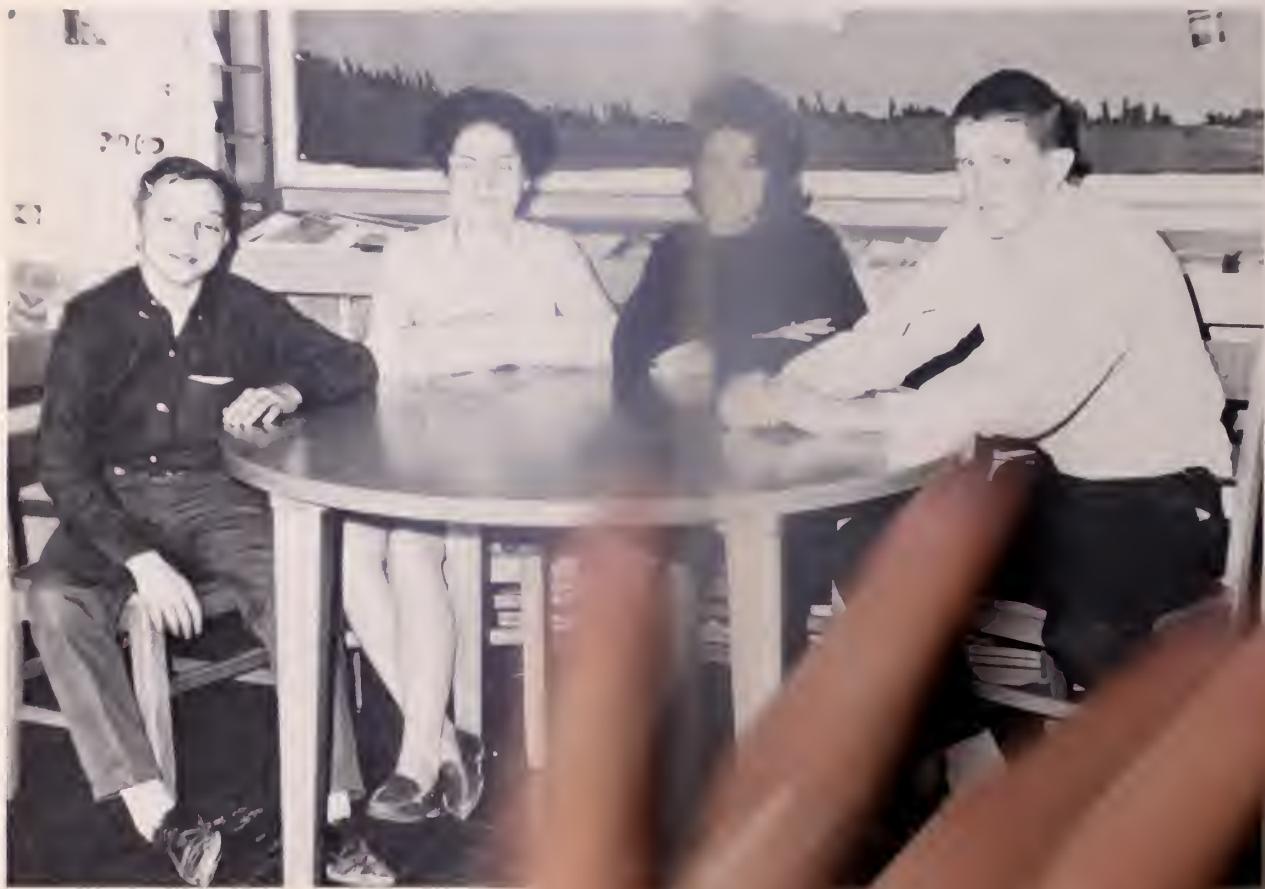

Many members of the freshman class participated in junior varsity activities. These included football, basketball, and cheerleading.

The highlight of the year for all freshmen was the Shamrock Dance. The class selected Sue Newman and Buck Ramsey as Queen and King of Shamrocks.

The cafeteria was decorated with green and shamrocks, interspersed with shamrocks. Several of the mothers were on hand to serve delicious refreshments. The dance ended an evening to be remembered.

The Freshman Class officers for 1964 were Buzzie Ferguson, president; and Ashby Armistead, vice-president.

Faye Watson, treasurer; Kitty Gordon,

Eighth Graders Hold Valentine's Day Dance

Class officers of the Eighth Grade were: SEATED: Jo Ann Schepp, vice-president; Leonard Reid, president; STANDING: Tommy King, secretary; and Buck Baskerville, treasurer.

The eighth graders were invited to Park View for an orientation day before the regular school session began. They became familiar with the school and their schedules.

Later in the fall, they elected Leonard Reid as president for the class. He led them through the rest of the year's activities.

The class members were eligible to play junior varsity sports, and five girls were chosen to be cheerleaders.

The annual class party was held in the school cafeteria with Valentine's Day as the theme. Two members of the class were chosen King and Queen of Hearts. They reigned over the festivities of the evening.

In the spring, the seventh graders paid a visit to Park View. Members of the eighth grade served as guides, taking the visitors on tours of the school and various classrooms.

A School Of Outstanding Achievements

In the following section, the curriculum, is found the level at which we fuse the instructor and the student for our main purpose, that of learning.

With the seven various types of study offered--collegiate scientific, collegiate liberal arts, commercial stenographic, commercial clerical, general program with emphasis on agriculture, home economics, and industrial arts--there is literally something for everyone. Because high school is the stage of life at which time many individuals select their future occupations and because the scholastic demand of the student has risen to the highest proportion in the history of education, the modern high school must be able to meet the needs of each student. Your school, Mr. Morgan, always strives to meet these demands.

Miss Trimm explains to Jimmy Butts the schedule of College Board Examinations. This is only one of her many duties as Park View's guidance counselor.

English Students Explore Worlds

One of Miss Wiggs' 8th grade English students asks a question about a new point of grammar. Members of the class include: Tommy Bennett, Charles Binford, Billy Leighton; SECOND ROW: Linwood Conner, Betty Peebles, Angus Gilreathe.

Mrs. Bryson reads Julius Caesar to her 10th grade English class.

Of Literature And Grammar

"All the world's a stage," says Mrs. Sara Cliborne to her Senior English class.

English -- dull? Not at Park View. The everyday routine of spelling and grammar is made more interesting by oral book reports, plays, and projects. This year, being the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare, special emphasis was put on his work. English students explored the many fascinating worlds of literature. They traveled from Kipling's INDIA, to Poe's HOUSE OF USHER, and through various other lands by way of literature books.

Written themes are another phase of English that is covered. Students must do research in order to collect information. Note cards, rough drafts, and bibliographies are part of this project as well as the carefully written theme.

Journalism News Keeps Students Informed

Using the library for study are Mike Hauenstein, Mr. Dodrill, Wade Crutchfield, Nelson Wright, and Charles Thorpe.

The library is a storehouse of knowledge. It serves the students doing research as well as those reading for pleasure. Paper-back editions for classics and modern novels are on sale for all. Students and teachers enjoy the convenience and solitude of the library for studying and reading.

The journalism class, taught by Mrs. Butts, was responsible for gathering, and writing the school news to be published in the "South Hill Enterprise" each week.

This year class members conducted a survey to locate all graduates of Park View since 1956, a project which proved to be very interesting. Class members also were given a tour of the South Hill Publishing Company.

Members of the journalism class are Garland Locks, Cynthia Weaver, Foy Edmond, Mrs. Butts, Jo Ann Gage, and Harvey Powers.

Students Are Challenged By Foreign Languages

Some of the members of the French II class listen to tapes to improve their pronunciation. Class members include: Janice Davis, Ashley Armistead, Janan Montgomery, Charles Bugg; STANDING: Mrs. Mildred Moseley, and Robert Harrison Elliott.

Park View's foreign language department offers two years of Latin and two years of French.

Latin students find their course helpful in understanding English as many of our words are derived from Latin. In addition to grammar, they also study the customs of the Roman people and learn of the history of Rome.

First year French students are introduced to the basic elements of grammar and pronunciation. The second year students continue with this work and add knowledge of the French people, their everyday life, famous writers and artists, and famous places and cities.

Mrs. Boswell explains declensions to Rose Creedle and Judy Simmons. Other class members are Joyce Pergam, Nancy Miller, Larry Mahan, Sandra Hall, Nancy Kidd, and Marie Brandon.

Mr. Fred Smith aids Herman Tanner in his study of civics.

The courses in the field of social studies provide the students with an understanding of their background, freedom, rights, and duties necessary to become tomorrow's leaders. Courses offered in this field include: World History, the study of the heritage of other countries; United States History, dealing with the beginning, growth, and future of our country; World Geography, the study of the geographic factors of our earth and their effect upon the life of the people; and Government, a course taught to seniors to help prepare them to take their places in organized society.

To supplement the classroom work, special projects are required of the students. Such projects as maps, posters, scrapbooks, and research papers allow pupils to further their knowledge in topics not covered directly in class.

Mr. Leo Allen explains to World Geography class the strategic location of Egypt.

Mr. Bryant Lumpkin emphasizes the place which today's youth hold in the government of our country.

Math Develops Students'

Mrs. Patty Wilson explains the base eight system to her math class.

As Ashby Armistead and Mrs. Bennett look on, Harrison Inge explains the distributive property of multiplication of real numbers to a first year algebra class.

Skills And Accuracy

Mr. Dodrill explains the basic fundamentals of trigonometry to his class. Members of the class include: FRONT ROW: Robert David Cook, Garland Locks; SECOND ROW: Curtis Thorpe, Joe Tanner, Donald Bell; THIRD ROW: Henry Lee Cundiff, Malcolm Leonard; FOURTH ROW: Carlton Cole, Bunny Paulette.

Young mathematicians find ample opportunity to increase their knowledge of the "Queen of the Sciences." Beginning students meet problems involving linear and quadratic equations, while advanced algebra students study cubics, quartics, and determinants. In plane geometry, students are introduced to deductive reasoning in their studies of angles, polygons, and proportion. Students of solid geometry wrestle with the properties of skew lines, cones and parallelopipeds. Trig students learn the use of logarithms and the slide rule as they analyze vectors, triangles, and trigonometric functions to determine unknown angles and distances.

For those not inclined toward higher mathematics, the department offers two courses, eighth and ninth grade math, that enable the pupil to solve practical problems that arise in daily life.

Students Learn By Experimenting

Students in Mr. Jimmy Brooks general science class answer classwork questions as part of their course.

James Poythress and Nita Montague carefully examine an interesting specimen with the aid of a hand lens in their biology class.

In Science Courses

Dickie Mayton, Joe Harris, and Janice Roberts carefully perform an experiment on solutions and suspensions in the chemistry lab.

In the field of science, Park View offers general science, biology, chemistry, and physics. These courses are essential for students who plan on careers in science and mathematics.

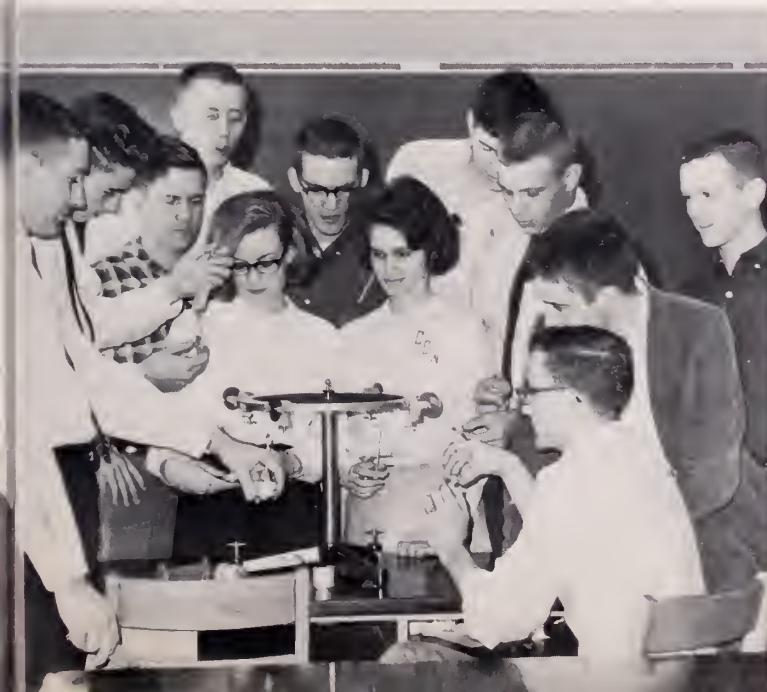

The foundation is set in the general science course where students learn general principles of biology, chemistry, physics, and earth science.

The processes, and functions of living things are taught in biology. While dissecting their specimens students learn through experience the principles of anatomy and laboratory procedures.

Wearing their black lab aprons, chemistry students conduct experiments and venture into the world of valences, ions, and catalysts.

The study of mechanics, sound, and electricity highlight the physics course. This basic science sharpens the sense of logic with formulas and numerous problems.

Physics class members watch Mr. Dodrill as he demonstrates a lesson in weight and force. The students are Curtis Thorpe, Threet Gill, Peyton Smith, Betsy Walker, Melvin Cage, Carol Walker, Carlton Cole, Mike Hauenstein, Charles Bugg, Nelson Wright, and Robert David Cook.

The finished products are displayed on the bulletin board for the school fair.

"Class, your project for the next six weeks will be a collage." To all art students this is a familiar statement. Every six weeks, new projects are assigned. Some of these include poster design, papier mâché, pen and ink, and ceramics. Mrs. Watson tells her students that art is not only a prospective career, but is also very useful in everyday life.

Art Inspires Creativity

As Joan Evans, Bernard Bottoms, Wayne Watson, Gloria Arrington, Carolyn Parrett, Patty Locks, Kathryn Jones, Betty Crutchfield, arrange the bulletin board, Mrs. Watson observes Rachel Kidd, Linda Walker, and Carol Land as they work on a still life.

The physical education classes are a combination of textbook study and active participation in sports and games. Tumbling, softball, football, basketball, ping pong, shuffleboard, and badminton are among the games taught.

The boys and girls alternate using the gym four days a week and co-educational classes are taught on Friday.

This year every student took a physical fitness test. This was composed of a 60-yard dash, standing broad jump, relay race, sit-ups, tip-ups, bobbing, and a 600-yard dash.

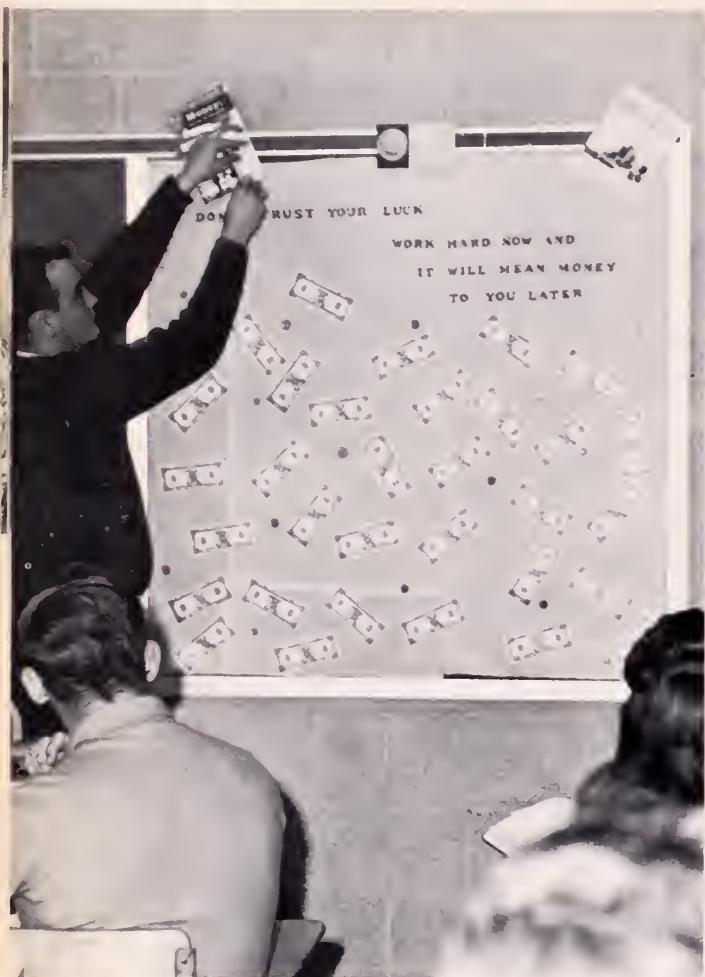

Strata Faddis works out on a parallel bar.

Students Train For Physical Fitness Tests

Carolyn Hendricks, Linda Hightower, Kathryn Jones and Judy Hart watch while Gloria Arrington, Charlene Reese, Ruby Ezell, Janice Chapman, Rachel Kidd and Ann King form a pyramid.

Manual Skills Are Developed

Mr. Mac Wilson arranges a bulletin board for his economics class.

In Business Courses

Girls Learn Principles Of Good Homemaking

These girls are putting the finishing touches on their sewing projects. Members of the sewing class are: STANDING: Nancy Miller, SEATED: Judy Thomas, Linda Reeson, Sandra Harper, Rose Creedle, Linda Walker, Jerry Lynn, and Shirley Estes.

Many Park View girls prepare themselves for the role of future homemakers by taking Home Economics courses, taught by Mrs. Martin and Miss Blackwell. Home Economics students study the eight areas of homemaking. Students take trips to the market and discuss how to plan well-balanced meals. Included in the Home Economics course is a unit in housing which covers everything from buying or building a home to furnishing it. The practical knowledge these girls gain will be very useful to them in the future.

Under the supervision of Miss Blackwell, some of the Home Economics students enjoy a prepared meal. STANDING are Miss Blackwell, Betty Smiley, and Mary Frances Tanner. SEATED are Marsha Kennedy, Ann Cliborne, Mary Alice Walton, Linda Micheal, Nina Townsend, and Linda Thompson.

Boys Receive Vocational Training

Mr. R. C. Hines aids Tommy Moseley as he completes a scale drawing.

The four year agricultural program at Park View is supervised by Mr. Elliott and Mr. Brooks. Classes meet for three days a week for classroom study and two days for shop work. Students are required to keep accurate records of all individual crops. Members of these classes participate in forestry judging, public speaking, livestock judging, and crop judging contests.

The industrial arts and mechanical drawing division is headed by Mr. Hines. Boys taking these classes make tables, lamps, clockcases, gunracks, and many other useful items. Mechanical drawing students learn to do scale drawings of three dimensional objects.

As part of his shop course, C. N. Taylor learns to safely use welding equipment.

Chorus Explores The World Of Music

The members of the Girls' Chorus are FRONT ROW: Gloria Crutchfield, Lennis Lett, Gloria Moody, Linda Walker, Mary Beth Schepp, Barbara Saunders, Jean Wrenn, Judy Carter: SECOND ROW: Patricia Hendricks, Mary Alice Hostettler, Judy Snead, Gloria Arrington, Theresa Jones, Diane Keeling, Judy Hart, Sandra House, Carolyn Toombs, Alice Upton: THIRD ROW: Carolyn Estes, Brenda McClintock, Patsy Horn, Carolyn Morgan, Ruth Tanner, Cynthia Harris, Mary Ann Crutchlow, Carol Evans, Margie J. Haines, Louise Parham, Faye Moss, Linda Glass, Miss Crouch.

The girls' chorus is an elective organization open to all those who have had some choral background, either in elementary school or in beginning choral classes. This year's chorus is made up of two classes of choral music, which combine for performances. The girls perform for various assemblies as well as giving programs for civic organizations. The choral club also participates annually in the District Choral Festival, during which time they are judged and rated as to performance.

This year's choral festival was held at Fairfield Junior High School in Richmond in April. The chorus received a rating of good.

Band Fills Year With Achievements

A year of hard work and determination brought the Park View High School Band another list of outstanding musical achievements. Under the direction of Miss Rebekah Crouch, the band brought honors both to themselves and to the school.

The first semester of the school year finds the band performing in football half-time shows, and parades. The band performed in parades in South Hill, Danville, and Chase City. It was given the distinct honor of being asked to perform in the Peanut Festival in Emporia, and in the Tobacco Festival in Richmond.

The primary goal of the second semester is to develop good tonal quality for the concert band. The band showed that it had reached its goal by receiving scores of excellent and superior in the District music festival.

For the first time this year a District Band was sponsored by Park View and four other schools. Our band showed its individual talent by having approximately twenty members in it.

As always the Park View Band was not content with resting on their past achievements. The 1963-64 band members can look back with pride on their year's accomplishments.

Sections Practice Separately For Perfection

Trumpeters are Threet Gill, Billy Moseley, Mike Hough, Stuart Newell, Spencer Crowder, Linda Montgomery, Billy Stell, Wylie Farrar, Tommy Gordon.

Miss Rebekah Crouch stops to correct band during rehearsal.

Drum Major And Majorettes Lead Band

Majorettes are Janan Montgomery, Martha Kimball, Katherine Moore, Martha Jordan, Linda Montgomery, Brenda Wells, Vicky Walker.

Color Guard and Banner Girls are Carol Evans, Jo Ann Smith, Mary Crowder, Pat Parker, Lennis Lett, Shirley Estes.

A School With Active Organizations

The importance of an individual being able to work, plan, and create is also not overlooked in your school, Mr. Morgan, for the value of an active interest in the various clubs, which further these traits, is stressed at Park View.

At Park View, there are some fourteen active clubs, each a part and a contributing member of the school. The clubs--each with its own purpose, ideals, and activities--offer the student a variety of opportunities, whether it be for preparing for future vocations, developing literary and organizational abilities in the two publications, furthering interests in foreign languages and customs, practicing student government, working within the library to serve the school, studying the history of art and developing one's own creativity, or in recognition of outstanding ability in the scholastic and athletic fields.

Thus, it can be seen that although studies are of primary importance in your school, Mr. Morgan, the opportunities and advantages afforded by co-operative work are realized as being equally important in developing the student.

Hall monitor Royall Boswell checks Betsy Walker's pass. The hall monitor system is a project of the S.C.A.

As the student governing body of the school, the S.C.A. Council discusses freely and thoroughly many important school matters. These officers and student representatives from each class, work to promote better student-teacher relations and to encourage student co-operation and participation in school activities.

The S.C.A. projects this year included the school store, safe driver awards, sale of the World's Finest Chocolate Candy and the "Miss Park View" Beauty Contest. The money raised from the Beauty Contest was used to help install air-conditioning in the school library.

Students Participate Through S.C.A.

"May I help you?" says storekeeper, Cynthia Harris to Gilda Crowder and Judy Simmons as they make purchases from the S.C.A. School Store.

The officers of the S.C.A. are the following: president, Marvin Piland; treasurer, Ronnie Moseley; vice-president, Lyle Lacy; secretary, Betsy Walker; reporter, Gloria Crutchfield.

The officers of the Beta Club are Gloria Moody, Historian; Rachel Smelley, Reporter; Sylvia Puryear, Reporter; Jean Pegram, Secretary; Foy Edmond, Vice-President; Billy Taylor, President.

The Beta Club strives to promote leadership, scholarship, and achievement. One must obtain an "A" or "B" average on his subjects, including citizenship, to be a member of this honor club.

The Beta Club observed a day as "Beta Rat Day." Twenty-one new members took part in this informal initiation. Each new member had to wear white gloves in order to be distinguished from other students. He also had to do odd jobs for his fellow Beta members.

On March 13-14, 1964, fourteen delegates and Miss Wiggs attended the Beta Convention in Roanoke, Virginia.

As a project, several Beta members sold refreshments at the Miss Park View contest.

Beta Recognizes Scholastic Achievements

The Marguerite Trimm Chapter of the F.T.A. strives to promote the teaching profession. During American Education Week senior members of the club obtain practical experience by observing and teaching classes of their choice. At the club's annual picnic a book scholarship is awarded to the senior girl or boy elected "Mr. or Miss Future Teacher." The money for this scholarship is obtained through preparing and selling of candy at the variety show. Future Teachers are also called upon to render the morning devotions. Miss Marguerite Trimm and Mrs. Polly Butts sponsor the club.

Interest In Teaching Promoted By F.T.A.

Monogram Club Spotlights Athletes

The Monogram Club is the "athletic honor society" of Park View. To be a member of the club, one must letter in a varsity sport or be a varsity cheerleader. Junior and senior boys receive jackets, while senior girls receive miniature gold basketballs or megaphones on gold necklaces.

The club is organized to carry out two purposes: to boost school student backing of and participation on Park View athletic teams, and to honor those who excel in sports.

An efficiently run concession stand brings in money for the club during football and basketball seasons. Homecoming festivities are sponsored each year by the Monogram Club. Highlighting the Monogram Club year is the annual Monogram spring picnic.

Ronnie Moseley serves as president of the Monogram Club, while Garland Locks is reporter; Janice Roberts is secretary-treasurer; and Mike Hauenstein is vice-president.

Latin Forms Basis

The first year Latin students belong to the Junior Latin Club. The members receive an introduction to the customs and traditions of the Roman people.

The programs on Roman mythology are of special interest to the students. Each meeting is planned to create interest as well as provide information. This is done by the use of films on home life and schooling and individual talks on famous mythological stories.

The officers of the Junior Latin Club are: Pat Wise, president; Mary Ogburn Gee, vice-president; Judy Simmons, secretary; and Ashby Armistead, treasurer.

Of Romance Languages

Officers of the Senior Latin Club are: Susan Hankley, reporter; Gloria Crutchfield, secretary; Charlotte Oakley, treasurer; Donald Bell, president; and Wilson Thompson, vice-president.

"Latin Lives Today" is certainly a true statement, as the Senior Latin Club members have discovered. Club meetings focus attention on the value of Latin and Roman culture to the advancement of our present civilization. Various speakers, films, and skits make the programs enjoyable as well as informative.

The officers of the Art Club help arrange an art display in the trophy case. Carolyn Morgan is secretary, Jean Wreen, treasurer; Ruth Tanner, reporter; Margie Haines, president; C.N. Taylor, vice-president; and Mrs. Watson is the sponsor.

The Art Club gives students the opportunity to develop their creative abilities and to learn more about the world of art. Any student who has had one year of art or who is a senior taking art for the first time is eligible for membership.

The Art Club programs cover various phases in the art world. Some programs concern art appreciation with local artists as guest speakers. During other meetings members are given the chance to express their own ideas in art. This includes work with water colors, charcoal, pastels, and ceramics. They also have seasonal projects such as designing Christmas Cards.

Art Club Fosters Appreciation Of Art

The Art Club members are: SEATED: Margie Jean Haines, Jean Wrenn, Ruth Tanner, Carolyn Morgan; STANDING: Mrs. Watson, C.N. Taylor, Kathryn Jones, Rachel Kidd, Mike Martin, Gloria Arrington, Mary Hostetter, Lynda Ryland, Patty Locks, Judy Hart, Betty Crutchfield, and Robert Thomas.

The Reviewer's Staff includes: Mrs. Tucker, Harvey Powers, Foy Edmond, Mary Cabell Estes, Garland Locks, Jo Ann Cage, Mary Beth Schepp, Vicky Walker, Linda Chandler, Carolyn Wells, Judy Creedle, Ann Thomas Gill, Billy Taylor, Sylvia Puryear, Margie Haines, Linda Turner, Mrs. Butts.

Reviewer's Staff Relates School Activities

The Reviewer's staff creates the well-known "Park View Review". The jobs of writing, typing and editing articles, running-off the newspapers, and distributing them are all carried out under the supervision of Mrs. Marie Tucker and Mrs. Polly Butts. As a prerequisite for membership, each student must submit a paper stating his reasons for wanting to join the staff. These are read and approved by the faculty and sponsors.

This year for the first time, a newspaper delegate, Foy Edmond, attended the S.I.P.A. convention in Lexington, to gather ideas for improving the quality of our newspaper.

Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Butts are sponsors of the Reviewer's staff.

Harvey Powers and Foy Edmond, editor, and assistant editor, head the staff, supervising the planning, printing, and distribution of the papers.

F.H.A. Members Are Instructed

To strive for better family life as well as to promote further interest in Home Economics are the purposes of the Future Homemakers of America. The chapter theme for this year was "Marriage calls for Preparation." All of the programs centered around this topic; the fair exhibit was a poster depicting the "Highway to Happiness". Club programs consisted of talks by Miss Melinda Maloney, Home Economist for Virginia Electric and Power Company, and a representative from the Mecklenburg Electric Cooperative.

Panel discussions were held with members of the club participating. Other projects included making curtains for the sewing area of the Home Economics department and making puppets for the children at the hospital.

This year Park View served as hostess for the annual Spring Rally. The program for this meeting was a panel discussion on the pro's and con's of going steady.

In Field Of Good Homemaking

The officers of the F.H.A. are: Shirley Estes, reporter; Sandra Harper, secretary; Mrs. Martin, sponsor; Jean Wrenn, vice-president; Sandra Binford, president; Patricia Watson, treasurer; Geraldine Evans, historian.

Future Farmers Bring Honors To School

Officers of the F.F.A. are Norman Hudson, treasurer; Ronnie Smith, reporter; Tommy Williams, vice-president; Joe Inge, president; Sherwood Creedle, secretary; Mr. Brooks, sponsor; R.C. Creedle, sentinel.

The F.F.A. develops agricultural leadership. This was proved when Joe Inge, A.C. Wells, Tommy Williams, and Jimmy Puryear won the State Farmer Degree. This is the highest honor a State Association can confer upon its members. Boys of the F.F.A. con-

The Park View Senior 4-H Club, with seventy-seven members, completed a most successful year. Many of its members competed in activities and District Contests. Carol Land won first place honors in the East Central District Dress Revue. Charles Mooney, Jr., won a blue award in Home Grounds Beautification Demonstration and Joe Inge won a blue award in Livestock Conservation Demonstration.

Two judging teams competed in District Contests and won trips to a Short Course at V. P. I. The Land Judging team, Tommy Williams, Royall Boswell, and Threet Gill, placed second in their contest. The Livestock Judging team, Linwood Conner, Henry Hendricks, Harrison Inge, and Joe Inge, placed first. Linwood Conner placed high and Henry Hendrick placed second high in individual competition.

Under the guidance of Sandra Harper, president, the Club enjoyed discussing topics and demonstrations on First Aid, Fashions for Boys and Girls, and demonstrations for County contests as part of the regular monthly meetings.

The officers of the 4-H Club are: Sandra Harper, president; Vicky Newman, reporter; Linda Walker, treasurer; Johnny Warren, parliamentarian; Norman Hudson, secretary; Roger Washburn, vice-president.

Library Club Members

The Junior Library Club officers are Doc Freeman, chairman; Judy Hart, vice-chairman; Pat Moody, secretary; Judy Simmons, treasurer.

Park Views Junior Library Club serves a dual purpose. It gives students opportunities to learn about their library and to serve the school by working in the library.

A student enters the Junior Club after his paper stating his reasons for wanting to join the club is approved by the sponsor, Miss Hatch. In this club the members learn the basic fundamentals concerning the library. This knowledge prepares them for future work in the Senior Library Club.

Their duties are to keep the library in order, check out and check in books and to keep the general appearance of the library attractive.

Aid School Librarian

The members of the Senior Library Club are:
SEATED: Miss Hatch, Betty Moody, Joyce Reese, Foy Edmond, Pleas Johnson; SECOND ROW: Strata Faddis, Louise Parham, Christine Crutchfield, Melvin Cage, Carolyn Reese, Willie Elam, Carolyn Whitten, JoAnn Hall, Patricia Hendricks, Barbara Evans, Linda Nickols, Lewis Paynter, Julian Jackson, Monty Rainey.

The Senior Library Club is composed of the students who have earned the required number of service points. The members, having learned most of their duties from the previous year, assume their responsibilities with interest.

The Senior Library Club in cooperation with the Jr. Club promotes the observance of National Library Week. They also conducted the annual magazine drive, and sold "cool, school stools". The Library Club year is climaxed by the annual spring picnic.

The officers of the Sr. Library Club are Lois Paynter, secretary; Pleas Johnson, welfare chairman; Cynthia Weaver, treasurer; Miss Hatch, sponsor; Foy Edmond, president; Betty Moody, reporter; and Joyce Reese, vice-president.

Annual Staff Captures School

Dwight Phaup explains basic rules of writing good copy to the copy staff. The members are: SEATED: Betty Copley, Mrs. Wells, Betsy Walker; FRONT ROW: standing: Jean Wrenn, Linda Turner, Judy Carter, Kirk Hamlet, Sara Leggett, Gloria Griggs, Garland Locks, Betty Hamlin, Dwight Phaup; SECOND ROW: Mary Bonney, JoAnn Cage, Rachel Smalley, Lyle Lacy, Jean Pegram, Linda Creedle, Ruth Griggs, Margie Haines, Billy Taylor, Curtis Thorpe, Ronnie Moseley, Janice Roberts, Jimmy Butts.

In order to become a member of the annual staff, each person must submit a paper stating his reasons for wanting to become a member. The editors and sponsor make the selection of persons and job assignments are given out.

Each member of the staff is assigned a specific club or organization to cover. He writes main copy, captions and identifies pictures.

It was the job of the annual staff to try to capture the 1963-64 school year for all the students of Park View.

The theme and general layout of the annual are planned by the co-editors, Betsy Walker and Dwight Phaup.

Memories For All Students

Faye George, assistant business manager, and Marvin Piland, business manager, look pleased at the results of the ad sales campaign.

The job of the business staff was to canvass all businesses in the South Hill area and in neighboring towns for ads. They sold them after school hours and on Saturdays.

In addition to the ads sales, the staff conducted a very successful subscription campaign. To raise needed funds, they sold plastic covers for the annuals and sponsored the Miss Yearbook Dance.

Marvin Piland and Faye George give instructions to the business staff. Members of the staff are: SEATED: Judy Creedle, Carolyn Estes, Ann Thomas Gill, Nell Warren, Carolyn Smiley, Mary Cabell Estes; STAND-ING: C.N. Taylor, Linda Crowder, Betty Jean Crowder, Mary Ann Walden, Libby Downey, Foy Edmond, Ruth Tanner and Charles Taylor.

French Club Established At Park View

The officers of the French Club are: Martha Walker, secretary; Betty Hamlin, treasurer; Betty Copley, vice-president; Billy Taylor, president; Jean Pegram, reporter; Linda Moore, song leader.

"Parlez-vous français?" Most of us answer "non" or "très petit", but not the members of the French Club.

This year for the first time, Park View organized a French Club. Since both the first and second year classes were relatively small, they combined to form one club.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Mildred Moseley, the club has prospered during its first year.

Varied and interesting programs which included lectures on artists, music, games and skits were high moments of each meeting. A banquet featuring a typical French menu and entertainment was held in April. It is hoped that this will become an annual event. In future years, we expect the French Club to be one of the largest and most active clubs at Park View.

P.T.A. And M.E.A. Award Scholarship

The Parent-Teacher Association takes an active interest in the activities of the school. At the beginning of each school year, the P.T.A. sponsors a "Get acquainted" night at which the parents visit the classes of their children.

Another school activity sponsored by the P.T.A. is the annual School Fair. This year for the first time, the P.T.A. planned a Career Night for the student body. In co-operation with the M.E.A., the organization contributes to a scholarship which is presented to a member of the senior class.

The P.T.A. officers are Mrs. Leslie Leonard, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Paulette, reporter; Mrs. Mary Freeman, recording secretary; Mr. Richard Inge, president; Mrs. Eunice Land, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Mildred Smith, 2nd vice-president; and Mrs. Alice Yale, corresponding secretary.

Mr. E. A. Payne, president of the M.E.A., calls the meeting to order at the spring picnic.

The Mecklenburg Education Association is an organization designed to promote the progressive development of the county's educational system.

This goal is carried out by encouraging the growth of professional interests among its 167 members, by exchanging ideas and information about school work, and sound interpretation of the educational program to the public.

Each year the M.E.A. presents pins to teachers who have taught for 25 years and gifts to retiring teachers. In co-operation with area P.T.A. groups, the M.E.A. gives 2 county scholarships to deserving seniors of Bluestone and Park View.

A School With A Well-Rounded Athletic Program

The part athletics play in your school, Mr. Morgan, is no small one. Football, basketball, golf, and baseball were all influencing factors in the transformation of the building into a school and of the students into adults.

This year, every phase of the Park View athletic program had a reasonably successful season, as the student body, through their active support and good sportsmanship, spurred the teams on.

The athletic teams of your school, Mr. Morgan, have, over the years, built a reputation for themselves of sportsmanship, desire, and teamwork. This year's teams were no exception.

The members of the Girls' Basketball team rejoice after winning the first tournament game.

Teamwork Pays Off As Dragons

With the sound of the band, and the roar of the crowd, the Dragons come running onto the field ready for a hard-fought game.

Co-captains for the 1964 season were Wade Crutchfield and Ronnie Moseley.

Under Coach Harold Wise, the Dragons used as their main weapon, defense. Lack of experience caused the offensive to be weak at the beginning of the season, but the defense held. As the season progressed, the offensive began a steady surge forward bringing the final record to 5-4-1.

Co-captains of the Green Dragons are Wade Crutchfield and Ronnie Moseley.

Two points! The Dragons take the lead!
The Dragons played some close games, but they came out fourth in the district with a 10-6 record.

Coach Allen switched his pattern of a man-to-man defense and developed several new defense tactics. These new plays helped confuse the opposing teams.

The Dragons set two school records as
All-District Robert Tanner scored 36 points against Blackstone helping to boost the score to 98 points.

Captain Peyton Smith chalked-up some important points with his set-shot.

All-District Ronnie Moseley, along with Wade Crutchfield and Ashby Armistead helped lead the Dragons offensively and defensively.

The team was backed with powerful bench power, making the Dragons a feared

With senior co-captains, Betty Hamlin and Janice Roberts, leading the way, the Dragonettes took second place in the District III race. A vicious press and fast break proved to be key factors of victory in the most successful girls' basketball season in Park View's history.

The Dragonettes, blessed by speed, experience, and coached by Mr. Smith and Mrs. Lumpkin, employed a man-to-man and zone defense to post a seasonal record of 10-2.

Co-captain Janice Roberts, voted to the all-district team, averaged 11.7 points per game, while Hamlin, Locks, and Walker showed their prowess of movement offensive ability in speed and ball handling, as Park View's team averaged 33.3 points per game. The defensive team, Sara Leggett and Betty Young allowed the opposing teams only 26.0 points per game.

Betty Hamlin and Janice Roberts were chosen as co-captains for the 1963-64 Dragonettes.

A School Of Outstanding Achievements

In the following section is found the highlights and brightspots of the past year at your school, Mr. Morgan, the activities.

The opportunities in extra-curricular activities enable the student to extend his interests in various fields; to put his creativity to work; and to be recognized for outstanding achievements. Further, activities aid in the development of the student--scholastically, socially, and culturally.

The events of the year have ranged from the homecoming festivities to the Miss Park View Contest to the DAR Citizenship awards; from your reception, Mr. Morgan, to the Junior-senior Prom; from the Miss Yearbook Contest to the WRNL Radio Scholarship Quiz.

It's been a busy year at your school, Mr. Morgan, and in the following pages are some of the things that we will remember most about it.

Mr. A. B. Haga, Superintendent of Mecklenburg County Schools, talks about the educational background of Mr. Morgan at the reception given in his honor.

Homecoming Attracts Alumni

Principal Charles H. Morgan crowns Janice Davis the 1963 Homecoming Queen at the half-time of the Park View- Kenbridge football game.

Queen Janice and her escort, Dwight Phaup, lead off the first dance of the evening.

A smashing victory over the Kenbridge Comets helped offset the disappointment of a postponement of Homecoming because of rain.

One of the brightest spots of the night was the crowning of the queen and presentation of her court during half-time. Janice Davis, a senior member of the cheerleading squad, was chosen by her fellow students to reign over the night's festivities. The annual Homecoming dance after the game helped give a special "welcome back" to friends and alumni.

Homecoming is an unforgettable spot in any Park View student's memory. The 1963 event was certainly no exception.

The Homecoming Queen and her court wait for the dance to begin. The court includes Nancy Brown, eighth grade; Kitty Gordan, ninth grade; Brenda Martin, tenth grade; Mary Ann Walden, junior class; Carol Walker, senior class; Janice Davis, queen; Jean Wrenn, senior class; Gilda Crowder, junior class; Patricia Watson, tenth grade; Judy Simmons, ninth grade; and Midge Harper, eighth grade.

Vicky Walker Is Crowned "Miss Yearbook"

The "Miss Yearbook" Court includes: Betty Copley and Ogburn Taylor, Janan Montgomery and Ronnie Moseley, Vicky Walker and Jasper Powell, Garland Locks and Bunny Paulette, Mary Cabell Estes and Charles Bugg.

In order to boost subscription sales for the LEAVES OF MEMORY, an annual "Miss Yearbook" contest is held. When a student buys a subscription to the annual, he is entitled to a vote for his favorite candidate. Those nominated by the Annual Staff and the Senior Class were Betty Copley, Mary Cabell Estes, Garland Locks, Janan Montgomery, and Vicky Walker.

The "Miss Yearbook" dance was held in the school cafeteria after a basketball game with Kenbridge. There was much excitement and suspense in the air because the winner was not announced until the night of the dance. The students and nominees waited impatiently until, at last, Mr. Morgan announced that Janan Montgomery was first runner-up and Vicky Walker was "Miss Yearbook" for 1964.

Vicky Walker expresses surprise as she is announced "Miss Yearbook", while Janan Montgomery and Ronnie Moseley look on.

Mr. C.H. Morgan crowns Vicky Walker, "Miss Yearbook", while her escort, Jasper Powell, watches.

Guests Of Juniors Relax In A

"I'll be with you in apple blossom time" engulfs the ballroom.

In a whirl of apple blossoms and wishing wells, the night of the Junior-Senior finally arrived. As the guests passed through a rose-covered gate and crossed a rustic bridge, they entered a world of, "In Apple Blossom Time." Soft music by the Kaydets of Chase City gave a dream-like background.

Pink Nectar, Blossom Time Sandwiches, Apple Seeds, Butterfly Mints, and Spring Bouquets were the refreshments.

All too soon, that long - awaited night came to an end.

Reception Given In Honor Of Mr. Morgan

Mr. Charles Henry Morgan, retiring principal of Park View High School, and Mrs. Annie McLean, retiring teacher, were honored by the P.T.A. and the students with a reception on May 7th. The program consisted of selections by the Park View band and chorus for tributes to Mr. Morgan and Mrs. McLean.

Mr. Morgan was presented a watch by the P.T.A. and Mrs. McLean received an engraved silver platter. After the program, refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

Mr. Morgan is presented a watch by P.T.A. president, Mr. Richard Inge.

Students Receive Special Recognition

The recipients of the 1964 scholarships were Linda Crowder and Dwight Phaup.

The Marguerite Trimm Chapter of the Future Teachers of America selected a boy and a girl to receive a fifty dollar book scholarship. This boy and girl must plan to teach and have already been accepted by the college of his choice.

Miss Future Teacher and Mr. Future Teacher were crowned at the annual picnic held in the spring.

Ten delegates were elected to represent Park View at Boys' and Girls' State. These assemblies were held at V.P.I. in Blacksburg and Radford College in Radford, Virginia. The American Legion sponsored these assemblies to show young people how the government is run.

Individuals Compete In Radio Quiz Contests

Park View had a contestant in the University of Richmond-WRNL radio scholarship quiz this year. Billy Taylor was one of 27 contestants picked to be in the quiz. The contestants were quizzed on English, American history, science, and mathematics. Billy took third place in the statewide contest, thereby winning a $2000 scholarship to the University of Richmond.

"Now, Bill, what is the area of a circle inscribed in an equilateral triangle with sides 4 inches long?" "4/3 pi square inches." "Right!"

Our radio "Quiz kids" bone up for their first contest. Members are: Harvey Powers, A.C. Wells, Charles Bugg, Marvin Piland, and Billy Taylor.

This year Park View was represented on the Comet Radio Current Events Quiz by the "quiz kids". After several weeks of study of state, national, and international affairs, the "quiz kids" traveled to South Boston to compete with Halifax High School quiz team. The Dragons performed well in the three-week long contest, scoring 54 points to Halifax's 67.

Pointer College Sets Scene For

Janan Montgomery and Martha Walker portray mother and daughter in the Senior Play.

"How can I have a mother who's a freshman?" That classic line set the mood for the Senior Play, "Mother is a Freshman". Any normal college girl in her right mind would certainly be shocked if she found out her mother was going to college. This happened to Susan Abbott. Her mother, Abigail Abbott, found out about a scholarship at Pointer College for any girl named Abigail Fortitude. Since she didn't have enough money to send her daughter back to school, it seemed logical for her to accept. She had her problems, and among them was a certain handsome young professor of zoology. He later turned out not to be such a problem after all. Things got mixed up, but came out all right in the end. But, oh, what fun everyone had in the process!

The boys offer assistance to the new "freshman". Cast members include: Henry Cundiff, Martha Walker, Marvin Piland, Melvin Cage, and Threet Gill.

Powers And Phaup Win State Debate Contest

As Jimmy Smelley keeps time and Garland Locks and Harvey Powers observe, Curtis Thorpe cross-examines Dwight Phaup in a practice debate.

Although this was only the third year Park View had a debate team, it brought many honors to the school through its out-standing work.

Attending two meets, the University of Richmond Invitational and the Group II, District 3 Tournament, the affirmative team, composed of two first year debaters, Garland Locks and Curtis Thorpe, "came through" very well. While they tied the first place team of Buckingham for the number of wins in the district meet, they were forced to take third place in the district on the grounds of quality points.

The negative team, composed of three-year veteran Harvey Powers and two-year debater Dwight Phaup, posted the best debate record in the history of Park View. At the Richmond Invitationals, the team won two of three matches. Later in the season at the District meet they had the only undefeated team in the tournament and thereby won the Group II, District Negative Championship. At this same tournament first negative, Dwight Phaup won the best negative speaker award.

Going on to the State Debate Tournament at the University of Virginia, Powers and Phaup won the State Group II Debate Championship.

Harvey Powers and Dwight Phaup present the Group II State Tournament Championship trophy to be placed in the school trophy case to Mr. Morgan, principal.

District Public Speaking Won By Ann

Thomas Gill

Ann Thomas Gill does research for her winning speech.

The annual district forensic tournament was held in April at Cumberland High School. This meet included contests in the fields of prose, poetry, public speaking, and spelling. The debate tournament was held at Buckingham High School.

Park View teams placed second in number of points scored, while Cumberland and Randolph-Henry tied for first.

Our winners were Ann Thomas Gill, Girls' Public Speaking and Harvey Powers and Dwight Phaup, Negative Debate.

Students Named To All-State Band And Chorus

The Park View Band was represented in the All-State Concert Band held in Richmond, Virginia, at John Randolph Tucker High School. Members of the All-State Band are Judy Cliborne, Nancy Kidd, Marvin Piland, Linda Moore, Doug Crawford, Threet Gill, Martha Walker, and Robert Elliott.

Five members of the Park View Girl's Chorus represented Park View in the All-State Chorus held at Richmond Professional Institute. Members of the All-State Chorus are Sandra House, Diane Keeling, Gloria Crutchfield, Gloria Moody, and Gloria Arrington.

Awards Given For Citizenship And Athletic Ability

Each year the Prestwould Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution awards Outstanding Citizenship Awards to the girl and boy of the senior class who best display the five qualities of good citizenship - honor, service, courage, leadership, and patriotism.

The recipients of the awards are selected by the faculty and the senior class. The awards this year went to Betty Copley and Billy Taylor.

Mrs. Ruth Martin pins the Citizenship Award on Billy Taylor, as Betty Copley watches.

Coach Wise congratulates Wade Crutchfield on being chosen as a member of the All-State Football Team.

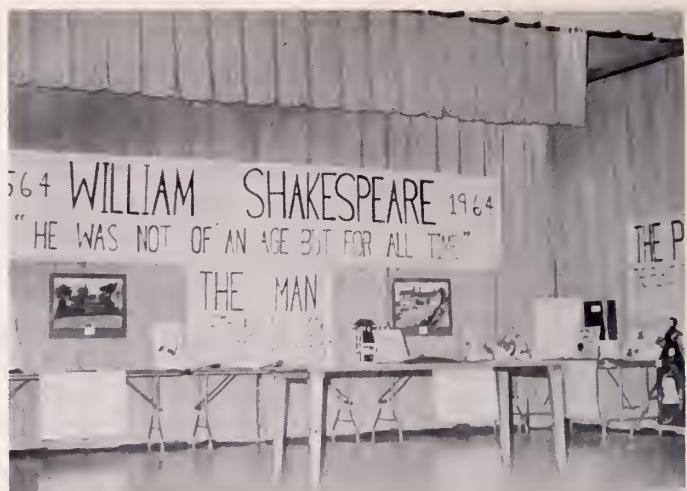

Mike Hauenstein, winner of this year's Most Valuable Player Award, looks on while Coach Wise points out last year's team.

School Fair Displays Student Projects

The school Fair is a project sponsored by the P.T.A. Each teacher selects projects and classroom work to be displayed. Every student at Park View has some of his work in the fair. In the course of one day, an empty gymnasium is turned into a showplace for the public.

Shakespearean projects were displayed in a special section for the Fair.

Mr. Inge, president of the P.T.A., studies the English grammar posters.

The Business Department displays the "Magic Office Formula."

Vocations Are Explored On Career Night

Billy Taylor, Harvey Powers, and Lyle Lacy listen as Rev. Robert D. Burch gives some helpful information about church-related vocations.

On Thursday night, March 12, a Career Night was held at Park View. Approximately twenty-five local people of various professions consented to take part in this program. Each student was given the opportunity to attend group discussions of any three of these professions.

In these group discussions, students received information on background and training as well as salary and other details concerning a particular job. They were also allowed time for any questions which they might have had.

Plans for the first Career Night were made by the P.T.A.

This evening proved to be very helpful and interesting to all Park View students and their parents.

Miss Betsy Johnson gives Carolyn Wells, Margaret Martin, Mrs. Martin, and Mary Ann Walden information on a nursing career.

Seniors Present "T.V. Extravaganza"

Lights! Camera! Action! As the chairmen, Linda Crowder and Betty Copley, stood nervously backstage, the "Senior TV Extravaganza" with host, Harvey Powers, got underway. Betsy Walker and Rachel Smelley delivered the class poem entitled "That Was the Class That Was." After a zany commercial by Marvin Piland, Faye Moss and Judy Creedle brought the audience up to date on the class history. Carol Walker and Mary Cabell Estes presented the class gifts. The Last Will and Testament was given by Phyllis Pearce and Geraldine Evans. After another "helpful" commercial, Billy Taylor and Curtis Thorpe gave glimpses into the futures of the class members. Then the time came for Channel 64 to sign off. The curtain was closed on the "Senior TV Extravaganza."

Harvey Powers, host of the program, gives a hardy welcome to the audience.

Billy Taylor portrays The Visitant as he and Curtis Thorpe deliver the class prophecy.

As Betsy Walker, Mary Cabell Estes, Faye Moss, Curtis Thorpe, Judy Creedle, and Carol Walker look on, Phyllis Pearce reads the Last Will and Testament of the class of 64.

Scholastic Achievements Rewarded By Recognition

The juniors having the highest scholastic averages are selected as marshals and ushers for graduation. The marshals for 1964 were Foy Edmond, Mary Bowen Bonney, and Sylvia Puryear. Ushers for this year were Verna Atkins, Davy Bowers, Jimmy Butts, Judy Carter, Linda Creedle, Randy Crocker, Faye George, Ann Thomas Gill, Joe Harris, Lyle Lacy, Marsha Moody, Jean Pegram, and Jimmy Smelley.

At mid-term of the senior year, the students having the top ten averages are announced. From these students two are chosen by the senior class to speak at graduation. The other members of the "Top Ten" plan the Class Night program, which includes the class history, prophecy, poem, and presentation of gifts.

Sylvia Puryear, Mary Bowen Bonney, and Foy Edmond serve as Marshals for 1964.

Members of the "Top Ten" are: Betsy Walker, Phyllis Pearce, Marvin Piland, Billy Taylor (tied for 1st place); Mary Cabell Estes (2nd place); Betty Copley (3rd place); Judy Creedle (4th place); Geraldine Evans (5th place); Faye Moss (6th place); Carol Walker (7th); Linda Crowder (8th); Dwight Phaup and Rachel Smelley (9th); Curtis Thorpe (10th).

"This We Know" Is Theme

As the first notes of the processional "God of Our Fathers," was sounded, the graduating class of 1964 marched into the auditorium for the Baccalaureate ceremonies. After a selection by the girl's chorus, the Rev. Ronnie Lackey delivered the sermon entitled "What is Man?" After the benediction by the Rev. William M. Moore, the seniors marched out to the "Grand March".

On Tuesday, June 9, the seniors marched in to "Pomp and Circumstances." The theme for the 1964 Graduation was "This We Know." After the invocation by the Rev. Samuel Cole, Marvin Piland gave the first address entitled, "This We Know About Ourselves." The second speaker, Dwight Phaup, spoke on, "This We Know About Our Society." The Honorable W.C. Daniel delivered the main address to the graduation class of 1964. Joe Tanner, vice-president of the senior class presented two checks to Mr. Sam Land, member of the school board. After the presentation of the diplomas by Mr. Morgan, the graduated Seniors marched out for the final time to the strains of "War March of the Priests."

For 1964 Commencement

The Honorable W.C. Daniel, member of the General Assembly of Virginia and Assistant to the President of Dan River Mills, delivered the main address to the 1964 graduating class.

The seniors march in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstances."

Marvin Piland was elected by his fellow classmates to speak at commencement.

Dwight Phaup was elected to represent his classmates as a speaker at graduation.

A school supported by interested patrons

As the school serves the community through its educational facilities, so does the community serve the school. The real sponsors of the annual, financially, are the merchants and store owners in surrounding communities. This year the staff of salesmen sold ads in South Hill, LaCrosse, Bracey, Brodnax, Chase City, Clarksville, Henderson, North Carolina, and Norlina, North Carolina.

At the beginning of the school year each salesman was given a written identification card from Mr. Morgan stating the student's purpose and showing that he had the proper authority to sell ads.

From Mr. Morgan and the annual staff, a special word of thanks should be given to all the business establishments which have ads in the 1964 Leaves of Memory. Without their co-operation this book could not have been published.

The 1964 Leaves of Memory is completed. It was not the efforts of the editors alone. We would like to thank:

Mrs. Gladys Wells, our sponsor, for her guidance and service;
Delmar Publishing Company and Mr. Max Ward for his photography;
Jimmy Butts and Monty Rainey for their action shots and special photography;
The annual staff who gave their time and effort;
Mr. Morgan for his co-operation in making this annual possible.

The 1965 Leaves of Memory has not yet begun. To Ann Thomas Gill and Mary Bowen Bonney, co-editors, we wish success in capturing the next school year.
